Sub: - Grant Extension of Autonomous Status to Sri Sarada College of Education, Salem-630
016 Tamilnadu affiliated to Tamilnadu Teacher's Education University, Chennai

Sir/Madam,

This has reference to the proposal submitted by Sri Sarada College of Education, Salem-630 016 Tamilnadu affiliated to Tamilnadu Teacher's Education University, Chennai for extension of autonomous status under the UGC Scheme for Autonomous Colleges.

On the basis of the report of the UGC Expert Committee, the Standing Committee in its meeting held on 02.11.2018 decided to grant extension of autonomous status to Sri Sarada College of Education, Salem-630 016 Tamilnadu affiliated to Tamilnadu Teacher's Education University, Chennai for a period of five years w.e.f. 2018-2019 to 2022-2023 Including ex-post-facto approval for the period from 2017-2018.

The University is requested to issue necessary notification/order regarding the grant of extension of autonomous status to the College as per the UGC (Conferment of Autonomous Status Upon Colleges and Measures for Maintenance of Standards in Autonomous Colleges) Regulations, 2018 for Autonomous Colleges. The College, if eligible, shall apply for autonomy grants as per the norms laid down in the Regulations.

The Autonomous College is required to abide by all the provisions of the UGC Regulations for Autonomous Colleges. The Regulations are available on the UGC website, www.ugu.ac.in.
Further, it may be noted that the above said college shall also apply in the prescribed format to University Grants Commission for extension of autonomous status six months prior to the expiry of the autonomous cycle.

Yours faithfully,

-sd-

II. Background of the College with vision, Mission and Objectives:

Sri Sarada College of Education was established in the year 1968-69 by the dynamic effort of Mrs. Seetha Lakshmi Ramaswamy (Yatiswari Sarada Priya) under the president ship of Srimath Swami Chidbhananda of Sri Ramakrishna Tapovanam, Tirupparaithurai. With the aim of moulding the future teachers with intellectual, moral and spiritual values, Sri Sarada College Educational Trust, Salem propels the institution in the promising path. The founder President Swami Chidbhananaji and the founder Secretary Yatiswari Saradapriya formed the highest ideal and noble values of the Holy Trinity Bhagavan Sri Ramakrishna Paramahansa, Holy Mother Sri Sarada Devi and Swami Vivekananda as the guiding principles of the College.

Sri Sarada College of Education, Salem was started with the aim to provide more trained women teachers for the several new High Schools in the State and meet the shortage of trained teacher personnel. This college is striving best for the intellectual, spiritual, moral and cultural advancement of the country in general and Tamil Nadu in particular. It hopes to train teachers who will imbibe the culture and spiritual treasures of the land, so that they may become masters of themselves and servants of mankind. The college offers courses leading to B.Ed., M.Ed., M.Phil., and Ph.D. in Education. It is housed in its own multi-storeyed building with adequate infrastructure.

Sri Sarada College of Education is a Government aided college and it was affiliated to the University of Madras from its inception to 1998. Autonomy status was conferred in the year 1988-89. It was an affiliated college of Periyar University from 1998-2008. Since 2008, Sri Sarada College of Education has been affiliated to Tamil Nadu Teachers Education University, Chennai.

XVII Observations of the Committee:

With reference to the UGC D. O No. 2-59(2)/2004(AC/Review) dated July 6, 2018, the Committee visited the Institution under reference on October 4-5, 2018. During the Inspection the Committee assessed the infrastructural facilities available in the College including Building, Classrooms, Hostel, Laboratories, Libraries, Offices and other common facilities. It was found that the College had adequate infrastructure as per norms of the UGC for Extension of Autonomous Status.

The Committee evaluated the academic achievements of the College in terms of up-gradation of qualifications / skill of the teaching Staff, number and quality of the publications of the College as well as of individual staff members, and organization of academic programmes during the last 5 years. The Committee was satisfied with the efforts of the College and its teachers in this regard. The Committee was of the view that the College has potential to develop into a premier institution of teacher education in the State of Tamil Nadu.

The committee also interacted with the Principal, Teaching Staff, Non-Teaching Staff, Students and members of Management Committee. The general opinion of the Committee was that Institution has been working well for the last thirty years since the autonomous status was conferred on it for the first time. Everybody concerned with the functioning of the College has been working with full enthusiasm and commitment. Staff and the students were satisfied with the facilities made available by the College.

The Committee verified all the relevant documents related to land, building, equipment, accounts, salaries of teachers and non-teaching staff, proceedings of the meetings of the statutory bodies and audit reports of last three years. All the documents were found to be in order as per UGC norms led down for conferment of autonomous status. The proceedings of the inspection process were video-graphed whenever necessary.

XVIII Suggestions of the Committee:

1. Teachers of the College should be encouraged to conduct individual research and to submit research proposals to funding bodies for financial assistance.
2. The College may plan to start some short term certificate/ Diploma keeping in view the local needs of the area.
3. The College may procure latest books on education for its central and departmental libraries.

4. The College may organise seminars/ workshops on regular basis related to thrust areas as specified by the UGC.

XIX Recommendations of the Committee:

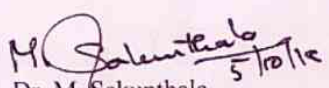

The members of the Committee were of unanimous opinion that the autonomous status of the College be extended on ex-post-facto basis for the year 2017-18 and on regular basis for five years from 2018-19 to 2022-2023.
