On

New Education Policy 2019 (Draft)- A Vision

On: 27/08/2019

Objectives of the Symposium

Government of India has come up with the draft of National Education Policy-2019. The draft was submitted to MHRD by Kasturirangan Committee constituted in 2017. The draft policy is developed on five foundational pillars of access, equity, quality, affordability and accountability. It also promotes innovations and research, aiming to make India a superpower in knowledge by equipping students with the basic skills and eliminating shortage of manpower in the fields of science, technology, industry and academics. This symposium focuses on the impact of key observations and recommendations of School Education, Technical Education and Higher education that were included in the draft.

About the College and Department

Sri Sarada College for Women (Autonomous), Salem was started in the year 1961 as an affiliated College to the University of Madras by Mrs. Seethalakshmi Ramaswamy under the benign grace and presidentship of Srimath Swami Chidbhananda of Sri Ramakrishna Tapovanam, Tirupparithurai. Since 1998, our college has been affiliated to Periyar University, Salem, Tamil Nadu, India.

The Postgraduate and Research Department of English began its journey in 1961. The Undergraduate Programme in English was started in 1965. In recognition of its potential, it was upgraded as a Postgraduate Department in 1979. As a Research Department it offers M.Phil. and Ph. D. programmes. The reputation of the courses offered by the department has progressively grown over the years in terms of quality and strength and continues to be in demand among students. The department has signed MoU with Polymer Channel, Salem; Shakespeare Institute for English Studies and ISERH, Nigeria for promoting a better understanding of leadership, relationship and entrepreneurship.

About Sri Sarada College of Education

Sri Sarada College of Education (Autonomous) is a sister concern of SSCW established in the year 1968. With the aim of moulding the future teachers with intellectual, moral and spiritual values, Sri Sarada College Educational Trust, Salem propels the institution in the promising path. As a Government Aided College, with the Autonomous status conferred in the year 1988, the college has been recognized by NCTE to conduct the Teacher Education Programmes viz. B.Ed., M.Ed., M.Phil. and Ph.D. (Education). Since 2008, our college has been affiliated to Tamil Nadu Teachers Education University, Chennai.

About the FDP

The main objective of the FDP is to enlighten teachers about the various techniques and tools of technology in teaching English language and literature. During the period of recent pandemic, technology has been the saviour to bridge the gap of learning loss created due to the closure of institutions. The post-Covid education system will have to innovatively adopt open learning spaces and phygital architecture, as there is a significant demand for hybrid learning. The blending of the physical spaces with digital spaces will ensure collaborative learning. This FDP will focus on the 21st century skills, ways and strategies to deploy the judicious use of technology and the demanding role of the teachers as facilitators.

Outcomes of the FDP

By the end of this programme, the participants would be able to,

- adopt and customise the digital resources and tools effectively in their classroom teaching.
- design their instructional methods with increased interactivity for teaching the language and literature.
- effectively merge the physical and digital learning spaces for enhancing the learner engagement.

In-Service Training Programme for Upper Primary School Teachers on “Trends and Technology in Teaching English”

09.09.2019

In-Service Training Programme for Upper Primary School Teachers on “Trends and Technology in Teaching English” was organized on 9th September, 2019 with the lighting of the lamp by the Principal of the college and other dignitaries at 9.30 am. This was followed by the prayer song. Dr.S.Santhi, the Principal welcomed the gathering. “Developing professional competencies is a regular practice of teaching fraternity and in the Digital era it is paramount important for them to keep abreast of the technological advancement in education field”, stressed Dr.K. Sindhu, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Periyar University, Salem in her Inaugural address. With the vote of thanks proposed by Dr.V.Priya, Assistant Professor of Physical Science, the inauguration came to an end.

The Technical Sessions start at 10 am. “Improvisation of Teaching and Learning” was the topic for the first session which was handled by Dr.K.Sindhu. She elaborated on the usage of simple and common things like shampoo sachet, packing covers of eatables like biscuits and the small boxes of cosmetic things as teaching learning materials to teach English language. She also listed out and detailed the simple improvised activities to enhance the communicative activities.

The second session started at 11.45 after a short tea break. Mr.R.Elavarasan, Master Trainer & Graduate Teacher, PUMS Vedapatti, Ayothiyapattanam Block described about the usage of “ICT in English Classroom”. He pointed out the various apps and softwares exclusively used for teaching of English.

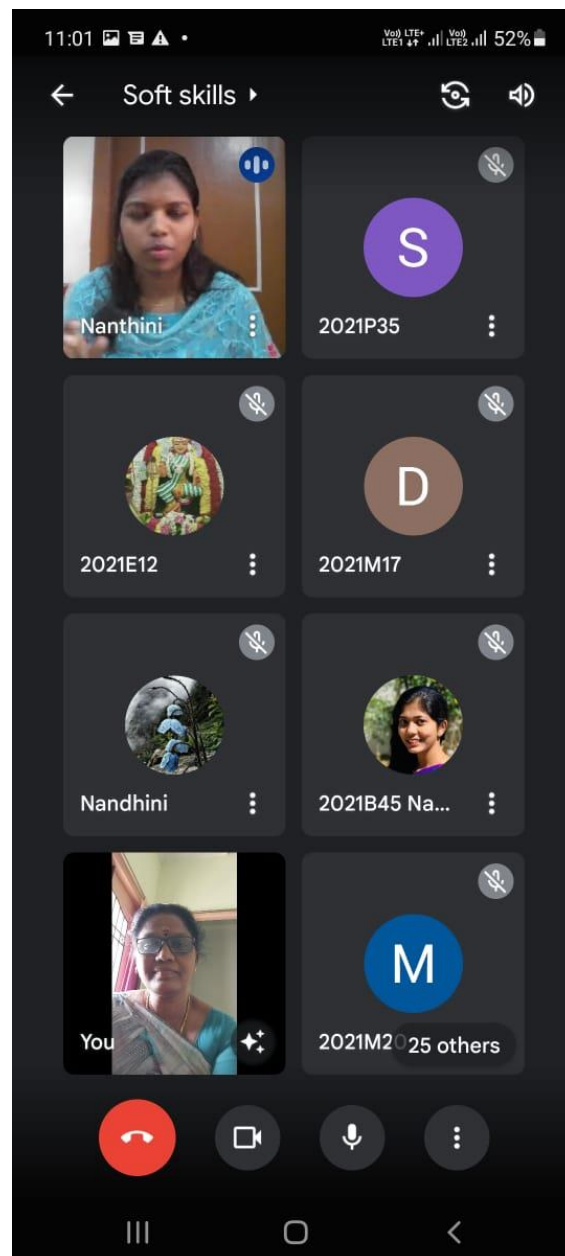

After the lunch, Dr.K.Kamala Devi, Assistant Professor of English, SSCE demonstrated the usage of SMART boards for teaching English at 1.30 pm. An exhaustive demonstration about all the built in programmes was given followed by the personal exploration of the participants. The teachers were given hands on training in operating the board.

After the tea break, there was an open interaction and discussion about the pedagogical implications of the activities learnt on the previous sessions. The session was highly interactive and all the queries of the participants were clarified by the resource persons. 17 teachers from six matriculation schools took part in the event.

The Valedictory ceremony was at 4.30 pm which started with the Reading of the Report by Dr.K.Kamala Devi. Mr.Elavarasan delivered the valedictory address and distributed the certificates to all the participants. The participants expressed their satisfaction while they shared their impressions. With the vote of thanks proposed by Dr.KP.Shanmuga Vadivu, the programme came to an end.

Review of Related Literature

- Literature is a collection of all of the relevant written sources on a topic. It will include both theoretical and empirical works. Both types provide scope and depth to a literature review
- An important element in research
- A careful examination of a body of literature helps to answer the researcher's question(s)
- Lawrence & McEvoy (2008) describe literature as, "the evidence-based review of relevant reference material."
- David, Paul & Justin (2011) perceive literature review as, "a first step in the research process, which helps to shape the research questions."
